

Dorothy Lloyd Griffiths

FEARLESS FRED'S

Big Lapland Adventure

Illustrated and written by Dorothy Lloyd Griffiths

FEARLESS FRED'S

Big Lapland Adventure

Written & illustrated by
Dorothy Lloyd Griffiths

My name is Fred. I'm just a puppy, six months old.
They call me Fearless Fred because I helped save the Queen's jewels, and I made the Big Bad Fox run away and saved a little girl.

I am a Border Terrier. My coat is brownish and I have lots of bushy whiskers round my nose and eyes. Food does get in my whiskers when I eat but I clean them with my paws

I'm going to Lapland where there is lots of snow!

My cousin Evelina and Bella Beagle, her puppy, have asked me to go with them to keep Bella Beagle company.

I am sure Bella Beagle is going to be my new best friend and show me all the animals in the forest.

We are going to fly there so our families will have to pack our suitcases and have our pet passports ready.

We both have a little chip in our fur with our names on in case we get lost.

My suitcase is blue and Bella's is red.
We are taking our best toys as well as bones to chew on.

Bella's best toys are hedgehog and reindeer.
And mine are bear and mouse.

When we arrived in Lapland we found everywhere was white.
Bella Beagle explained it was snow and it was very cold.

I haven't seen snow before because I'm only a puppy.

It did make me jump when my paws touched it.

At first I didn't like it because my paws felt very cold. Then when I ran around I found it was great fun and we rolled around in the snow until my whiskers were filled with snow

Soon it was time to drive to Evelina's house.

Bella Beagle and I sat in the back and looked out of the windows. All I could see from the car was snow, everywhere was white, with trees sticking out of the snow.

When we arrived at Evelina's house she took us to our wooden cabin which we are going to share and it will be our new home.